From the Principal

Chaplaincy Survey – Thank you to those of you who have been able to return the Chaplaincy survey that we sent out last week. If you are intending to complete the survey, please return it as soon as possible.

Book Week – This week is Book Week and we will be having a “dress up as a book character” day tomorrow. Children can come to school dressed up as a character from a book. We will have a parade of characters at about 11.15am. We also have a Book Fair in the library running until the end of the week. Most of the children have already had a good look over the books and many have made purchases.

Assembly – There will be an assembly at 2.00pm tomorrow in the music room.

Mid Year Concert – Our mid year concert will be held this Friday evening at 6.30pm. It will be in the Town Hall. Mr Smallbon has had the children practise and it promises to be an enjoyable evening. Even our Launching into Learning group will put on an item. Come along to see the children perform.

Student Leader Disco – On Tuesday afternoon, the student leaders are organising a disco. It will run from 1.30 to 2.30.

School Photos – School photos will be taken on Monday 9th September. Keep this date in mind and ensure that your children come to school dressed in full school uniform on that day. Remember to return the photo orders.

Market and Election Day – Just a reminder that if anyone is prepared to help out with the Chaplaincy BBQ at the Wilmot Market and the cake stall at the school, both on election day, 7th September, please let Raelene know at the office. Volunteering time and/or cooking for the cake stall would be welcome.

Shop - A reminder that if children are going to the shop at lunch time, they MUST have a note OR parents ring the school.

Yours in partnership
